Message from Fr. David

Bishop Kemme released a statement about Daca:

As a Bishop, I am in solidarity with these young "Dreamers" and I ask Congress to enact permanent protections in their name. I do this with the recognition that immigration has become one of the most controversial issues in American politics. While consensus on many aspects of immigration policy remains elusive, it is my hope that people from different perspectives on immigration can agree that those immigrants brought to the United States as children should not be deported and returned to a place of which they do not have nor a memory. Only a law passed by Congress can bring a definitive solution to the plight of these individuals.

I ask our people to join me in praying for such a resolution to be forthcoming and to ask the Kansas Congressional delegation to work with other legislators and the Trump Administration in formulating a youth policy "Dreamers" who defend the highest ideals of America as a beacon of welcome to immigrants.

Como Obispo, soy solidario con estos jóvenes "Dreamers" y pido al Congreso que promulgue protecciones permanentes en su nombre. Hago esto con el reconocimiento de que inmigración se ha convertido en uno de los temas más polémicos de la política estadounidense. Si bien el consenso sobre muchos aspectos de la política de inmigración sigue siendo difícil de alcanzar, es mi esperanza que personas de diferentes perspectivas sobre inmigración puedan estar de acuerdo que aquellos inmigrantes traídos a Estados Unidos cuando eran niños no deberían ser deportados y devueltos a un lugar del que no tienen ni una memoria. Solo una ley aprobada por el Congreso puede traer una solución definitiva a la difícil situación de estos individuos.

Pido a nuestra gente que se unan a mí en la oración para que una resolución de este tipo sea próxima y que pida a la delegación del Congreso de Kansas que trabaje con otros legisladores y la Administración de Trump en la formulación de una política para los jóvenes "Dreamers" que defienden los más altos ideales de América como un faro de bienvenida a inmigrantes.
