Fourth Sunday of Lent

CatholicGorillas.org

How to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Use an ordinary rosary.

1. Make the Sign of the Cross
2. Pray an Our Father, Hail Mary and The Apostles' Creed
3. On the Our Father beads say:
Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.
4. On the Hail Mary beads say:
For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.
5. Repeat for the five decades.
6. Conclude by repeating this prayer 3 times:
Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

The Fourth Sunday of Lent

But whoever lives the truth comes to the light....

Light is one of the most obvious “facts” of the natural universe. Without the sun our planet couldn’t support life. During periods of the year with little sunlight, rates of depression go up. At the current time of year we “spring forward” and begin enjoying an extra hour of light each evening. Isn’t that one of the best things about summer, when we still have light outdoors after 9:00 p.m.? It’s not just the warmth of summer that we enjoy, but also the light. Light allows us to engage in outdoor activity.

Light allows us to be active rather than dormant.

St. John the Evangelist in today’s Gospel passage comments at length upon something similar, but in a different sphere of life. In fact, today’s Gospel passage begins with only one sentence spoken by Jesus, while the remainder is the evangelist’s commentary. St. John describes moral activity in terms of light or its avoidance: “everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light”. These words describe every Christian who is a sinner. During the Season of Lent, we need to be brutally honest about how often and in how many ways these words apply to us.
