Message from Fr. David

Dead Week

I always thought that was an odd name for the week before finals; the week in which every professor attempts cram in everything they did not cover in the semester; the week where you have to finish all your papers; the week where professors have end of the year tests and sometimes finals. That's not really a dead week, unless you mean that students' minds are rather dead from working too hard. For a little reprieve, stop by the chapel and say a students' prayer this week. Perhaps the Lord will help you by removing from your tests the questions that you don't know the answers too. Or as one student told me this week, God blessed her by making it so the toughest professors did not show up for her oral exam. In seminary, we had a professor who would have us roll dice to see which question we had to answer. Therefore, we asked for help from St. Matthias who was the Apostles who was chosen by chance in the beginning of Acts.

A STUDENTS PRAYER

Come, Holy Spirit, Divine Creator, true source of light and fountain of wisdom! Pour forth your brilliance upon my dense intellect, dissipate the darkness which covers me, that of sin and of ignorance. Grant me a penetrating mind to understand, a retentive memory, method and ease in learning, the lucidity to comprehend, and abundant grace in expressing myself. Guide the beginning of my work, direct its progress, and bring it to successful completion. This I ask through Jesus Christ, true God and true man, living and reigning with You and the Father, forever and ever. Amen.

Dear Lord,

Help me to be the best student I can be.

Help to study well and to study often,
especially when I don't feel like studying at all.

Help me to be honest when I'm tempted to cheat.

Help me to listen to my teachers and my coaches.

Help me to play fair and to play safely.

Help me to be kind to everyone at school and especially to those whom others treat unkindly.

Help me to treat others as I would like them to treat me.

Help me to be a good friend to others.

Help me to help others who need my help.

Help me to do the best work I can do.

Help me to use all the gifts you have given me.

Help me to love and respect my parents.

Help me to trust in you, Lord, and in your love for me.

Help me, Lord, I need you! Amen.
