Message from Fr. David

Humility is one of the most important virtues we can develop in our personalities. We speak of humility in the Christian life as the "poor in spirit" from Matthew 5. As examples, we see our Lord on the cross and the Blessed Mother saying yes to the Lord. The virtue would fall under temperance: not doing what you want to do. We want to be prideful, self centered, inflated: the practice of humility allows us to look beyond ourselves and recognize our lowliness and how much God is doing in our lives. Strictly, humility is the moderation of the spirit, but in practice, it is recognizing reality: what is really our place in the world around us. Also in practice, humility is not thinking less of yourself, but less about yourself. Here is a very popular prayer for humility:

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being loved...
 From the desire of being extolled ...
 From the desire of being honored ...
 From the desire of being praised ...
From the desire of being preferred to others...
 From the desire of being consulted ...
 From the desire of being approved ...
 From the fear of being humiliated ...
 From the fear of being despised...
 From the fear of suffering rebukes ...
From the fear of being calumniated ...
 From the fear of being forgotten ...
 From the fear of being ridiculed ...
 From the fear of being wronged ...
 From the fear of being suspected ...

That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I ...
 That, in the opinion of the world,
 others may increase and I may decrease ...
 That others may be chosen and I set aside ...
 That others may be praised and I unnoticed ...
 That others may be preferred to me in everything...
That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should...
